

2-Day Lake Eyre Package from Brisbane

Dates to be advised when plenty of water in Lake Eyre & lots to show you!

Veteran super guide Graham Reid will be on board sharing his knowledge of all things outback including the river systems, road networks, deserts and corners.

Flying in an ATR72 twin engine, high wing plane, this plane is toilet equipped with two seats either side of a central aisle. Get on board with Graham, he has been to Lake Eyre over 65 times. Graham says "it's not all about the water in Lake Eyre, it's the journey the water takes to get there"!

You will be flying over 4000 kilometres and covering some amazing flood out country including the famous Channel Country.

Your fully inclusive 2-Day trip from Brisbane also includes lunch at the iconic Birdsville Hotel and overnight at Port Augusta, where you will hear a bit of history and also about The Port Augusta Renewable Energy Park, a unique hybrid renewable energy development integrating wind and solar PV technology.

Maximum 58 passengers

Cost $2587.00 per person twin share

DAY 1

7am Check-in at the General Aviation Terminal, (sometimes referred to as the Brisbane Jet Base), Brisbane Airport (via Dryandra Road) to board your flight for an unforgettable two days.

8.00am Depart Brisbane and fly over the Darling Downs agricultural farmlands and into mulga country. Travel west over the Warrego, Paroo & Bulloo Rivers, Cooper Creek and the Diamantina River before landing for lunch at the Birdsville Hotel.

Along the way, Graham will provide comprehensive commentary about the western river systems that make up the Lake Eyre Basin and some other interesting history.

Departing Birdsville, we turn south flying over Goyder Lagoon, see the Simpson Desert and Lake Eyre. Graham will be telling you some interesting facts as we look at this truly amazing expansive area.

Continue flying south over Lake Torrens, Graham will point out Lake Gardner, before landing in Port Augusta for the night.

Accommodation: Majestic Oasis Apartments on the waterfront at Port Augusta x 1 night

3-course dinner this evening is included at the Hannahville Hotel including return transfers.
